

A LIVELY QUAKER MEETING,

IN WHICH THE NEW YORKS TWICE SUBDUED THE PHILADELPHIAS.

Two Very Exciting Games at the Polo Grounds—Brooklyn Beaten at Boston—Washington and Baltimore Win One Each—Chicago, Cleveland, and Cincinnati the Other Winners—Other Games.

The New Yorks appear to favor the double-harrelled victory route to the top of the League ladder, and certain it is that if they continue to bring down two birds at each shot, it will not take them long to get alongside the confident Bostonians. Double victories over two such strong teams as Louisville and Philadelphia furnish ground for the belief that the Gothamites have begun to strike their gait. The Brooklyns appear to have had an unpleasing time at the Hub, but may even up matters when they meet Sole's men at Eastern Park. Chicago continues to show improved form, while Louisville is toying with the toboggan. The scores of yesterday's games were as follows:

New York, 7; Philadelphia, 0 (second game).
